Part B

Preface

In question 2, using only one parameter θ_i to represent the ability of the student i does not show the overall performance of the student. Hence, we choose to modify the IRT model.

Based on reality experience, students' abilities varies in different subjects and different subjects have different difficulties. Therefore, we can implement the IRT model on each subject and